These inquiries must also be conducted by EPA Brownfield Assessment and Characterization grantees. The user should provide the following information to the environmental professional (GSI). Failure to conduct these inquiries could result in a determination that "all appropriate inquires" is not complete.

1. Why is the Phase 1 being performed?

2. Environmental liens that are filed or recorded against the property (40 CFR 312.25).

Did a search of recorded land title records (or judicial records where appropriate, see Note 1) identify any environmental liens filed or recorded against the property under federal, tribal, state or local law? NOTE 1 – In certain jurisdictions, federal, tribal, state or local statutes, or regulations specify that environmental liens and AUL's be filed in judicial records rather than in land title records. In such cases judicial records must be searched for environmental liens and AUL's.

¹ Landowner Liability Protections, or LLP's, is the term used to describe the three types of potential defenses to Superfund liability in EPA's Interim Guidance Regarding Criteria Landowners Must Meet in Order to Qualify for Bona Fide Prospective Purchaser, Contiguous Property Owner, or Innocent Landowner Limitations on CERCLA Liability ("Common Elements" Guide) issued on March 6, 2003.

For example, are you involved in the same line of business as the current or former occupants of the property or an adjoining property so that you would have specialized knowledge of the chemicals and processes used by this type of business?

5. Relationship of the purchase price to the fair market value of the property if it were not contaminated (40 CFR 312.29).

Does the purchase price being paid for this property reasonably reflect the fair market value of the property? If you conclude that there is a difference, have you considered whether the lower purchase price is because contamination is known or believed to be present at the property?

REQUEST FOR AN ENVIRONMENTAL AUDIT PHASE 1 CERTIFIED HAZARDOUS MATERIALS RECORDS SEARCH FINDING REPORT

The main focus of a REQUEST FOR AN ENVIRONMENTAL AUDIT PHASE 1 CERTIFIED HAZARDOUS MATERIALS RECORDS SEARCH FINDING REPORT is to determine whether there exists in San Bernardino County Fire Protection District (SBCFPD) any record relating to contamination or reports of spills at a particular site.

Once SBCFPD has completed its records search, an Environmental Phase 1 Certified Hazardous Materials Records Search Finding Report will be prepared and issued. Such report will detail all SBCFPD records associated with a particular site by type, date, location, and status (where applicable).

If the completed records search reveals no SBCFPD record of hazardous material activity at the site, an Environmental Phase 1 Certified Hazardous Materials Records Search Finding Report will be issued, noting that "no records" were identified.

Please provide a specific site address or location description. If a situs address does not exist or cannot be found, list another type of location identifier such as Assessor Parcel Number (preferable), cross streets or intersections (e.g., NWC 5th Ave. & Main St.), and/or legal description. Dear Requestor:

On Sept. 1st, 2021, the Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) received your email of Sept. 1st, 2021, requesting records under the Public Records Act. DTSC Cypress Region has identified site records responsive to your request for: Ontario International Airport Master Plan, Archibald Ave & Airport Dr., Ontario. General Electric, 1923 E Avion St., & General Electric Test Cell, 2264 Avion Pl., Ontario

DTSC did not find records for: 1049 S Vineyard Ave., 1280, South, 1230 & 1250 Tower Dr., & 1801, 1922, 2132, 2161, 2475 East & Dr. & St., Place Avion & 2500 Jarupa St & 5 APN Parcels.

It tracks our cleanup, permitting, enforcement, and investigation efforts at hazardous waste facilities and sites with known or suspected contamination issues. EnviroStor is available 24/7, 365 days a year. The data reflects the latest updates as they are entered in the system. COOL ROOF REQUIREMENTS FOR CLIMATE ZONE 10
Note if the roofing product is not CRRC certified, this prescriptive compliance approach cannot be used. Use the Overall Envelope Approach or Performance Approach.
Where more than 50% of the roof or more than 2,000 sqft of roof, whichever is less, is being replaced, recovered or recoated, this altered roof area shall meet the cool roof requirements.
A. NONRESIDENTIAL BUILDINGS:
1. For low-sloped roofs (2:12 and below):
• Minimum 3-year aged solar reflectance = 0.55 AND minimum thermal emittance = 0.75, or
• Minimum solar reflectance index (SRI) = 64
2. For steep-sloped roofs (greater than 2:12) with roofing products density less than 5 lb/ft ² :
• Minimum 3-year aged solar reflectance = 0.20 AND minimum thermal emittance = 0.75, or
• Minimum solar reflectance index (SRI) = 16
3. For steep-sloped roofs (greater than 2:12) with roofing products density of 5 lbs/ft ² or more:
• Minimum 3-year aged solar reflectance = 0.15 AND minimum thermal emittance = 0.75, or
• Minimum solar reflectance index (SRI) = 10
B. HIGH-RISE RESIDENTIAL AND HOTEL/MOTEL BUILDINGS:
1. For low-sloped roofs (2:12 and below):
• Minimum 3-year aged solar reflectance = 0.55 AND minimum thermal emittance = 0.75, or
• Minimum solar reflectance index (SRI) = 64

CHECK THE APPLICABLE BOX BELOW FOR THE EXEMPTION OF "COOL ROOF" REQUIREMENTS:
The roof area covered by building integrated photovoltaic panels / solar thermal panels.
Roof constructions that have thermal mass over the roof membrane with a weight of at least 25 lb/ft ² .

- The CRRC Product ID Number can be obtained from the Cool Roof Rating Council's Rated Product Directory at www.coolroofs.org/products/search.php
- Indicate the type of product is being used for the roof top, i.e. single-ply roof, asphalt roof, metal roof, etc.
- If the Aged Reflectance is not available in the Cool Roof Rating Council's Rated Product Directory then use the Initial Reflectance value from the same directory and use the equation $(0.2 + 0.7(\rho_{initial} - 0.2))$ to obtain a calculated aged value. Where ρ is the Initial Solar Reflectance.

CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT
(CEQA) APPLICABILITY
FORM 400 - CEQA

The SCAQMD is required by state law, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), to review discretionary permit project applications for potential air quality and other environmental impacts. This form is a screening tool to assist the SCAQMD in clarifying whether or not the project¹ has the potential to generate significant adverse environmental impacts that might require preparation of a CEQA document [CEQA Guidelines §15060(a)]². Refer to the attached instructions for guidance in completing this form³. For each Form 400-A application, also complete and submit one Form 400-CEQA. If submitting multiple Form 400-A applications for the same project at the same time, only one 400-CEQA form is necessary for the entire project. If you need assistance completing this form, contact Lori Inga at (909) 396-3109.

| 8 | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Will the project increase demand for water at the facility by more than 5,000,000 gallons per day?
The following examples identify some, but not all, types of projects that may result in a "yes" answer to this question: 1) projects that generate steam, 2) projects that use water as part of the air pollution control equipment, 3) projects that require water as part of the production process, 4) projects that require new or expansion of existing sewage treatment facilities, 5) projects where water demand exceeds the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, and 6) projects that require new or expansion of existing water supply facilities |
| 9 | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | Will the project require construction of new water conveyance infrastructure?
Examples of such projects are when water demands exceed the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, or require new or modified sewage treatment facilities such that the project requires new water lines, sewage lines, sewage hook-ups, etc |

TITLE:Nelsen's Narrative [CRLF]This was a response for a smell of gas at the location. Arrived on scene and met with the security guard and he indicated that during his rounds he found a small leak at the fuel/water seperator and it smelled like fuel. On investigation found a very small leak that appeared to have been there for some time and was not an immediate problem. There was an odor of the fuel but was not a potential fire problem. The amount of fuild was about 1/3 of a cup in size. I advised the guard to make a report of it to the company and to have the maintenance personnel address the situation.

ME 133 and HM 133 responded to 1230 S. Tower Dr., Ontario Fire Station 10, for COVID decontamination. I had spoke with Captain Harkins prior to the call for service and discussed pre treatment actions to be taken by station 10 personnel. Upon arrival food and personal items had been cleared of all counters and tables, bedding was cycling through the extractor washing machine, the HVAC system had been turned off, and station personnel were taking final measures to secure personal property. HM 133 personnel and station 10 HM personnel (Harkins, Perdue) donned appropriate PPE (tyvek, N95, and eye protection) and performed a full station wipe down with D7 solution. We wiped all horizontal surfaces and all common touch areas through the entire station. When this was completed HM 133 personnel donned SCBA and utilized an HVLP spray gun to fog the entire station, apparatus bay, shop, and other adjacent rooms with D7 solution, We also wiped and fogged the cab of the apparatus the exposed personnel worked on (K140B). At the conclusion of the fog application I accessed the HAVC air handlers up on the roof, removed all the filters and we turned the system back on. We waited 20 minuets to allow the D7 to neutralize any virus present in the building. HM 133 personnel cleaned and serviced our equipment and went back into service. I advised the station 10 crew to wear gloves and eye protection when wiping up and cleaning the dried D7. P. Calzada Fire Captain ME 133 A, HM 133 A

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Presented in this report are the results of the Underground Storage Tank (UST) Removal Project for the General Electric Company (GE) site located at 1923 East Avion Street in Ontario, California (Figure 1). The subject site is occupied by GE's Engine Maintenance Center. Two USTs were scheduled to be removed during the UST Removal Project: Tank 9, a 7,000-gallon Calibration Fluid UST, was located along the north side of the GE facility (Figure 3 and Photo 1); and Tank 11, a 1,000-gallon Jet A Fuel UST (Figure 4 and Photo 2), was located along the east side of the facility. Both USTs stored new product for utilization in test stands and equipment.

Tank 11 was originally reported to have a 2,000-gallon capacity. During removal activities, a 1,000-gallon capacity was indicated by the tank label. Therefore, Tank 11 will be referred to as a 1,000-gallon tank in this report.

2.0 PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF SERVICES

Dames & Moore's purpose in this project was to implement GE's UST Removal Project. The scope of services, as defined by Dames & Moore's proposal dated July 10, 1991, included two main elements: 1.) UST removal and 2.) Soil segregation. Actual UST removal and associated construction activities were conducted by Disposal Control Service, Inc. (DCS) of Upland, California. Soil segregation was conducted by Dames & Moore and included the following tasks: 1.) Monitoring the excavation; 2.) Soil sampling; 3.) Analytical testing; 4.) Backfill monitoring; and, 5.) Reporting. This report presents the results of the UST Removal Project.

3.0 METHODS

3.1 PROJECT PREPARATION

3.1.1 PERMITS

Dames & Moore obtained a permit for the UST removal activities from City of Los Angeles Department of Airports. Permitting included developing a summary work plan, submitting necessary documentation, and providing a payment bond. DCS obtained permits for the UST removal activities from the following agencies: Ontario City Fire Department (OFD), County of San Bernardino Department of Environmental Services (SBDEHS), and South Coast Air Quality Management District (SCAQMD). Copies of these permits and related documentation are attached in Appendix A.

3.1.2 HEALTH AND SAFETY

A Health and Safety Plan was developed for the project by Dames & Moore to minimize health hazards to all onsite Dames & Moore workers and reduce the possibility of spreading contamination. The Health and Safety Plan included methods for protection from anticipated chemicals and provided information on finding medical assistance. Subcontractors provided their own health and safety plans to address construction activities which they performed.

3.2 TANK EXCAVATION AND REMOVAL ACTIVITIES

3.2.1 AIR QUALITY MONITORING

Throughout tank excavation and removal activities, a Century Organic Vapor analyzer (OVA) was utilized to measure organic vapor emissions. Monitoring occurred for three primary purposes.

1. Health and Safety Monitoring - The area around the excavation, the stockpile, and in the vicinity of the excavation equipment was monitored with the OVA to measure potential exposure of personnel to vapor emissions in Operator's Breathing Zone (OBZ).

2. Contaminant Levels - Soil samples, placed in a plastic bag and agitated, were screened with the OVA to measure vapor emissions in a closed head space to approximate levels of contaminants in that soil; and,
3. SCAQMD Rule 1166 Permit - Excavated soil was monitored with the OVA calibrated to hexane for organic vapor emissions at a distance not greater than 3 inches.

3.2.2 SHORING

DCS subcontracted K-West of Sun Valley, California to provide services related to installing a permanent shoring system northwest of Tank 9. The purpose of the shoring was to help support the Flow Room Building and test machinery housed within. The shoring consisted of three piles drilled on February 14, 1992 with a bucket-auger drill rig (Photo 3) equipped with 20- and 24-inch buckets (Photo 4) to maximum depth of 30 feet below ground surface (bgs). Steel beams, designated A through C, were lowered into the bore holes. The bore holes were backfilled with 2,000 pounds per square foot (psf) concrete up to 14 feet bgs and 2-sack slurry up to grade. The beams were cut off approximately six inches bgs. During excavation, treated 3- by 12-inch lengths of wooden lagging were positioned between the beams to provide soil retention down to the tank top, approximately 4 feet bgs (Photo 5). The space behind the lagging was backfilled with clean native soils.

3.2.3 CONCRETE AND HARDWARE REMOVAL

The surface paving covering the ground surface over the USTs was broken and removed by DCS. Paving generally consisted of asphaltic concrete up to 4 inches thick. At Tank 9, paving was removed on February 18, 1992 from a rectangular area approximately 12 feet by 20 feet. At Tank 11, paving was removed on February 19, 1992 from a rectangular area approximately 10 feet by 15 feet. Several layers of asphaltic concrete were encountered between the Tank 11 manways. A concrete pad was also observed along the south side of the excavation beneath the T-58 Test Cell building. Asphaltic concrete rubble was stockpiled near the areas to be excavated.

At Tank 9, steel piping was removed and stockpiled separately from removed paving. Underground piping was removed from the excavation, including vent and product delivery pipes. Approximately one gallon of Calibration Fluid was drained from the product pipe and collected in a bucket. The drained fluid was placed in Tank 10, the Waste Calibration Fluid Tank, which was not addressed by this removal project.

At Tank 11, steel piping and a positive displacement pump assembly were removed from the excavation (Photo 6). Fill, product, and vent pipes were removed from Tank 11 and stockpiled separately from removed paving. Less than one gallon of Jet A Fuel was drained from the pump and product line, collected in a bucket, and poured into Tank 11.

3.2.4 EXCAVATION

The soil overlying the USTs was excavated by DCS to expose the tops of the USTs (Photos 7 and 8). Excavation continued below the depth of the spring lines (widest points) of the USTs, approximately 9 feet below ground surface (bgs) for Tank 9, and 8 feet bgs for Tank 11.

During excavation at Tank 9, loose gravel was encountered along the southeast end of the UST. The gravel was backfill associated with adjacent Tank 10, a double-walled Waste Calibration Fluid tank. ~~Because it contained waste product, Tank 10 is currently governed by Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) requirements and was not permitted by California Department of Toxic Substances Control (DTSC) to be removed at that time. As excavation of Tank 9 proceeded, it became apparent that continued digging was undermining support of the concrete slab above Tank 10 (Photo 7). A small pothole dug in between Tanks 9 and 10 showed that the tanks were separated by only six inches. Removal of Tank 9 could have allowed Tank 10 to collapse into the excavation created by the removal of Tank 9. For this reason, continued excavation of Tank 9 ceased and a vent pipe was attached (Photo 9). After preliminary engineering evaluation of the undermined area was performed, the excavation was backfilled (Photo 10).~~

The regulatory agencies involved in this project were notified of this unanticipated change in plans. ~~It is GE's intention to remove Tank 9 in conjunction with the removal of Tank 10. This activity is scheduled to occur after DTSC approves GE's work plan for removal of Tank 10. The remainder of this report will mainly focus on Tank 11.~~

Organic vapor emissions were monitored using the OVA, which was calibrated daily to known standards of hexane and methane. The excavated soil was monitored with the OVA by analyzing vapors not more than three inches over freshly excavated soil in the backhoe bucket. Soil with levels of organic vapor emissions that were above ambient conditions were segregated into a potentially "affected" stockpile, whereas soil which showed very low or no detectable vapor emissions were placed in a "clean" stockpile. Records of monitoring were included in Dames & Moore's daily field notes and were submitted to SCAQMD on February 28, 1992, as required by SCAQMD Rule 1166. During excavation, vapor monitoring wells MW-9, MW-11, and MW-18 were removed from around Tanks 9 and 11. MW-10, south of Tank 9, was left in place for continued monitoring of Tank 10 (Figures 3 and 4).

3.2.5 TANK REMOVAL

Monitoring of the interior of Tank 11 was conducted by lowering a combustible gas indicator (CGI) into the manhole. Personnel did not enter the tank to record instrument readings. The CGI indicated zero percent of Lower Explosive Level (LEL) within the tank. Tank 11 was approved for removal by OFD Inspector Mary King. Degassing of Tank 11 was not required by SCAQMD Rule 1149 because the tank contained Jet A Fuel, which contains low levels of volatile organic compounds (VOCs). To physically remove Tank 11, the steel tank was hoisted from the excavation with a backhoe and placed upon plastic sheeting along the north side of the excavation (Photo 11).

Rinsing of the interior of the tank with water followed. Water from a hose was sprayed inside the tank to clean the interior and loosen any accumulated deposits within the tank. The rinsate liquid was evacuated from the tank by DCS using a hand pump. Approximately 100 gallons of rinsate was generated by the rinsing process on February 21, 1992. The rinsate, a non-Resource Conservation and Recovery Act (RCRA) hazardous waste, was transferred into two 55-gallon barrels for transport to Petroleum Recycling Corporation in Signal Hill, California, a licensed treatment, storage, and disposal facility (TSDF). A Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifest for this liquid, as provided by DCS, is attached in Appendix B.

After rinsing, Tank 11 was loaded onto a stake-bed truck for transport to American Metal Recycling, Inc. of Ontario, California, a licensed tank disposal facility. Tank fate documentation is attached as Appendix C.

3.2.6 AFFECTED SOIL REMOVAL

Inspector Marie Svoboda of SBDEHS observed removal of Tank 11 and directed sampling beneath the tank. Samples T-1A and T-2A were taken at 10 feet bgs at each end of the excavation (Figure 4 and Photo 12), and given to the onsite mobile laboratory for analysis. Excavation continued to remove obviously affected soils. Inspector Svoboda requested a second set of samples once soil conditions improved visibly. These were taken from locations T-1B at 13 feet bgs and T-2B at 12 feet bgs. Based on analytical results, a third sample was obtained from T-1C at 14 feet bgs, the maximum depth of the excavation. Soils that were affected based on visual observation and laboratory analysis were removed by excavating with the backhoe to a depth of approximately 14 feet bgs (Photo 13). A cross-section of the excavation showing sampling locations is presented in Figure 5.

Most soil encountered above 5 feet bgs, the top of Tank 11, did not appear Jet A Fuel affected, based on OVA readings, odor and discoloration. These soils were stockpiled separately for subsequent use as backfill. Most soils encountered between approximately 5 and 14 feet bgs, with the exception of soils from the sidewalls, exhibited indications of being Jet A Fuel affected. Characteristics of affected soils included closed headspace OVA readings ranging from 50 to 300 parts per million (ppm), strong odor and discoloration. Affected soils were segregated from previously excavated clean soils and loaded into containers. The containers were covered to reduce vapor emissions and protect the contents from rain.

Excavation of Tank 11 indicated that a localized area had been affected by Jet A Fuel. A zone less than one foot thick was observed to surround the tank top and sides and appeared to emanate from two manways. The manways consisted of sheet metal columns extending from about 6-inches above ground, down to the tank top. Metal lids, pictured in Photo 2, covered the manways. One manway contained the pump assembly and fill pipe, as well as connections for the suction and vent pipes. The other manway contained a tank manhole. Based on these observations, it appeared that the source of the localized Jet A Fuel affected soil was from the manways and possibly caused by minor spillage, overfilling, or piping leaks. The condition of the removed tank indicated that significant tank leakage had not occurred. The sidewalls of the excavation appeared unaffected beyond the one foot thick zone observed to be Jet A Fuel affected, based on OVA readings, odor, and color.

Since the Tank 11 excavation was unshored, caving of the nearly vertical sidewalls was a significant concern. Continued deeper excavation could not occur because utility conduits surrounding the excavation prevented sloping back the excavation: A high-voltage electrical line surrounded the north and northeast, a water line surrounded the east, a telephone duct surrounded the south, and a sewer line surrounded the west. Additionally, deeper excavation adjacent to a utility power pole on the north side of the excavation was not recommended by Southern California Edison.

Most soils encountered in the Tank 9 excavation were clean. Some soils near the Tank 9 fill pipe appeared to be Calibration Fluid affected, based on OVA readings, odor, and color. The affected soils were excavated and placed in a stockpile separate from the clean stockpile. Soil in the affected stockpile was placed on and covered with plastic sheeting until transferred to containers. The containers were covered to reduce vapor emissions and protect the contents from rain.

3.2.7 BACKFILL AND COMPACTION

Before the Tank 11 excavation could be backfilled, loose and caved soils remaining in the excavation bottom were removed to a depth of approximately 14 feet bgs. Backfilling of the excavation was performed after a Dames & Moore geotechnical technician reviewed the excavation bottom. Backfilling and compaction were performed by DCS and observed by a Dames & Moore technician on February 21 and 24, 1992. Clean excavated soil and imported Class II Base Material were utilized by DCS to fill the excavation. Monitoring of the excavation indicated that the backfill was compacted to a minimum 90 percent of maximum dry density. Compaction field reports are attached as Appendix D. Repaving of the excavation with asphaltic concrete occurred on February 26, 1992 (Photo 14).

The Tank 9 excavation was backfilled with clean soil from the excavation and from drilling the beams for shoring. A ramp was created with the clean soil sloping toward Tank 10's undermined concrete slab (Photo 10). Control density backfill (CDB) was poured to fill the void beneath the concrete slab (Photo 10). CDB was also poured to fill the void beneath a caved portion of piping backfill and to make up for affected soils removed during the excavation. Finally, CDB was utilized to cap the excavation. A slight dome was created to improve surface runoff.

3.3 SOIL SAMPLING

A total of 13 soil samples were collected during excavation activities. Dames & Moore obtained 5 soil samples from the Tank 11 excavation and 4 soil samples from the Jet A Fuel affected Tank 11 stockpile. Two water samples of the Tank 11 rinsate were obtained. Four soil samples were also obtained from the Calibration Fluid affected Tank 9 stockpile.

3.3.1 EXCAVATION SOIL SAMPLING

To further define the affected soil zones in the Tank 11 excavation, Dames & Moore conducted soil sampling into the bottom of the excavation under the supervision of SBDEHS Inspector Svoboda. Soil sampling was accomplished by directing the backhoe to dig relatively undisturbed zones beneath the removed tank. Sidewall sampling was not requested by SBDEHS Inspector Svoboda because field characteristics such as OVA readings, odor, and color did not indicate the sidewalls of the excavation were Jet A Fuel affected. Soil samples were obtained by hand-driving a 2-1/2-inch diameter by three-inch long stainless-steel sleeves into soil contained in the backhoe bucket.

Teflon sheeting and plastic end caps were placed on each end of the sample container. The soil sample was labelled with the following information: Dames & Moore job number, depth, sample number, date and time, collector, location, and soil type. In addition to the described soil sample, another sample sleeve was extruded into a plastic bag, agitated, and evaluated with the OVA for organic vapor emissions using a closed-headspace test. This soil was then visually classified using the Unified Soil Classification System, and described in the onsite geologist's field reports.

To minimize chances of cross-contaminating samples, cleaning of sampling gear was conducted between samples. The cleaning process included washing in a dilute trisodium-phosphate solution, rinsing in fresh and distilled water and then air drying.

3.3.2 STOCKPILED SOIL

Soil was segregated into clean and affected stockpiles, based on field characteristics such as odor, discoloration and OVA readings. Soil that was considered affected was placed on plastic sheeting and covered with plastic sheeting to reduce vapor emissions. In order to minimize volatilization and dust, soil was kept moist by spraying water mist during soil moving activities. Dames & Moore collected four soil samples, S-1 through S-4 from the Tank 11 Jet A Fuel affected stockpile to aid in characterization. Four soil samples, C-1 through C-4, were also obtained from the Tank 9 Calibration Fluid affected stockpile.

3.3.3 RINSATE WATER SAMPLING

Two water samples, R-1A and R-1B, obtained from Tank 11 rinsate were collected by holding a 40-milliliter VOA bottle at the discharge end of the hand pump hose. These samples were obtained at GE's request as duplicates to monitor concentrations of Jet A Fuel contained in the Tank 11 rinsate.

3.3.4 CHEMICAL TESTING

Collected soil and water samples obtained at the site were delivered directly to the onsite, mobile, California EPA-certified, analytical laboratory for chemical testing. The mobile laboratory was provided by Enseco of Garden Grove, California. Chain-of-custody was concluded by the analytical laboratory and provided to the originator. Copies of the completed chain-of-custodies are attached in Appendix D.

Analytical methods utilized to analyze the soil and water samples were as follows: EPA Method 8015 Modified for Jet A Fuel and Calibration Fluid; EPA Method 8020/602 for Benzene, Toluene, Xylene, and Ethylbenzene (BTXE); and, EPA Method 6010 for Total Lead. Analysis for lead was conducted on the two worst-case samples, T-1A and T-2A, obtained from two feet beneath removed Tank 11, as requested by SBDEHS Inspector Svoboda.

4.0 RESULTS

4.1 OBSERVATIONS

Removed steel Tank 11 appeared in good condition with no obvious evidence of punctures, perforations or holes observed. Excavation, removal and backfill were accomplished between February 19 and 26, 1992. The resulting excavation extended to a maximum depth of 14 feet bgs with maximum dimensions of approximately 10 feet by 15 feet. Approximately 45 cubic yards of Jet A Fuel affected soil were generated during excavation of Tank 11, based on field observations and analytical results. The affected soil appeared to emanate from the two manways removed from the tank top, as shown in Figure 5. The affected soils were excavated from depths greater than 5 feet bgs. About 30 cubic yards of clean soil excavated down to approximately 5 feet bgs were utilized as backfill.

The excavation resulting from activities at Tank 9 extended to a maximum depth of 9 feet bgs with maximum dimensions of approximately 12 feet by 20 feet. A permanent shoring system consisting of three drilled steel beams and wooden lagging was installed. Shoring, excavation, and backfill were conducted between February 14 and 20, 1992. Approximately 40 cubic yards of clean soil were removed during excavation of Tank 9 and utilized as backfill. A localized zone of Calibration Fluid affected soils was encountered around the Tank 9 fill pipe.

Backfill material excavated from around Tanks 9 and 11 was predominantly sand and silty sand. Clean soils were typically brown; however, affected soils were typically stained greenish gray or bluish gray. The soils encountered were usually moist. Groundwater was not encountered during excavation activities at Tanks 9 and 11. Previous investigations in the site vicinity have reported deep groundwater, measured at approximately 270 feet bgs.

4.2 AIR QUALITY MONITORING RESULTS

The Health and Safety Plan required upgrading personal protective equipment if OVA readings in the OBZ were measured greater than 15 parts per million (ppm) for more than one minute. During periods of excavation when affected soils were being handled, upgrading to Level C was not required.

OVA readings recorded while soil was agitated in a plastic bag (closed head space) reached a maximum of 300 ppm from the most affected zones encountered during the excavations of Tank 11. Average readings for affected soil ranged from 50 to 100 ppm. Clean soil typically gave readings not detected above ambient conditions.

SCAQMD Rule 1166 Permit #262144 was obtained by DCS before site activities began. Rule 1166 governs site activities during all phases of excavation of contaminated soil, from digging through stockpiling, loading, and hauling. The conditions of the permit, as specified by SCAQMD, were monitored by Dames & Moore. A copy of the permit is attached in Appendix A.

OVA readings of 50 parts per million (ppm), measured within three inches of the exposed surface, were recorded once during removal of Calibration Fluid affected soil associated with Tank 9. OVA readings greater than 50 ppm were not recorded while monitoring the soils associated with Tank 11. As required by Rule 1166, SCAQMD was notified by DCS and issued Reference No. 92-0259. Except for one instance of a 50 ppm reading, vapor emissions remained well below 50 ppm. Monitoring records were submitted to SCAQMD in a letter dated February 28, 1992.

4.3 CHEMICAL TEST RESULTS

Chemical test results are summarized in Table 1. Laboratory reports are included in Appendix E. Results indicated that levels of Jet A Fuel affected soil decreased with depth beneath Tank 11 from 15,000 ppm at 10 feet bgs (T-1A) to 120 ppm at 13 feet bgs (T-1B) and from 3,600 ppm at 10 feet bgs (T-2A) to 1,200 ppm at 14 feet bgs (T-2C). Stockpile results from Tank 11 excavation ranged from 310 to 3,000 ppm Jet A Fuel. BTXE compounds and Total Lead were not detected in the samples analyzed. Stockpile results from Tank 9 ranged from not detected to 120 ppm Calibration Fluid with BTXE not detected.

5.0 SOIL DISPOSITION

Clean soils excavated from Tanks 9 and 11 were utilized to backfill the excavations. The affected soils removed from Tank 9 and 11 excavations were stockpiled on plastic sheeting and covered with plastic sheeting. The soils were subsequently placed in 15 and 25 cubic yard containers and covered. On March 30, 1992, the containers were reportedly transported by DCS from the site to Waste Management, Inc.'s Kettleman Hills, California facility. Completed Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifests were not available at this time.

6.0 SUMMARY

Based on visual observations, Jet A Fuel affected soil extended to a maximum depth of approximately 14 feet bgs, or 6 feet below tank invert, directly beneath removed Tank 11. Based on analytical results, a significant decrease in Jet A Fuel concentration was observed between T-1A (10 feet) and T-1B (13 feet) from 15,000 to 120 ppm. The concentrations of Jet A Fuel affected soil decreased between T-2A (10 feet) and T-2C (14 feet) from 3,600 ppm to 1,200 ppm. Therefore at both sampling locations, concentrations of Jet A Fuel affected soil were observed to significantly attenuate. BTXE and lead were not detected above laboratory detection limits. Deeper excavation was not possible due to physical constraints of excavating adjacent to a utility power pole and the surrounding utility conduits.

Based on our field observations and on analytical laboratory reports, it is Dames & Moore's opinion that affected soil observed during excavation of Tanks 9 and 11 and removal of Tank 11 are localized in extent, possibly resulting from minor spillage, overfilling, or piping leakage. The actual extent of Calibration Fluid affected soil associated with Tank 9 will be able to be better defined after removal of Tank 9 and adjacent Tank 10 occurs.

The extent of Jet A Fuel affected soil associated with Tank 11 appears to have been well defined by excavation activities. The lateral extent was observed to be minimal and the vertical extent appeared to attenuate significantly by 14 feet bgs. Levels of BTXE and lead were not detected.

Levels of Jet A Fuel remaining in the excavation were reported as 120 ppm on the south and 1,200 ppm on the north. With groundwater at the site measured approximately 270 feet bgs, it is Dames & Moore's opinion that the levels of Jet A Fuel remaining in place do not pose a significant threat to groundwater. The source of the Jet A Fuel, Tank 11, has been removed and the area has been resurfaced with asphaltic concrete to minimize infiltration of surface runoff. Based on our field observations and laboratory data, Dames & Moore recommends closure of Tank 11 with no further action status granted by SBDEHS.

Subject: Underground Storage Tank Removal Project Report

Enclosed, please find the subject document regarding underground storage tank (UST) removal activities at the GE Aircraft Engines - Engine Maintenance Center/Ontario (GEAE-EMC/O) located at 1923 East Avion Street, Ontario, California, in the County of San Bernardino. Based on the information indicated in the report, we believe that the extent of contamination observed in both the Jet-A UST (Tank 11) and Calibration Fluid UST (Tank 9) excavations is quite limited and does not warrant further investigation.

Visually, it appears that the soil contaminated with Jet-A extends to a maximum depth of approximately 14 feet below ground surface (bgs). In the excavated area directly below the storage tank fill-pipe manway, the concentration of the Jet-A in the soil attenuates significantly between 10 feet bgs (15,000 parts per million (ppm)) and 13 feet bgs (120 ppm). Similarly, in the excavated area directly below the opposite manway, the concentration of Jet-A in the soil decreases from 3,600 ppm, at 10 feet bgs, to 1,200 ppm, at 14 feet bgs. In both sampling locations, BTXE (benzene, toluene, xylene, and ethylbenzene) and lead were not detected above laboratory detection levels.

The extent of soil contamination in the excavated area associated with the removal of Tank 11 excavation appears to be well-defined. Both the lateral and vertical extents of soil contamination is quite limited and decreases significantly by 14 feet bgs. The local groundwater has been established at 270 feet bgs and the excavation has been filled and the area resurfaced with asphaltic concrete to eliminate the possibility of infiltrated water driving the contaminants to groundwater level. Also, the source of the soil contamination---the UST---has been removed, effectively eliminating the possibility of additional contamination occurring. As a result, it is extremely unlikely that the existing contamination poses a threat to the local environment.

The contaminated soil observed during the excavation of the Calibration Fluid also appears to be localized. The extent of contaminated soil associated with Tank 9 has not been evaluated since the excavation activity has been temporarily terminated. The actual extent of affected soil associated with the Calibration Fluid tank will be more thoroughly defined after removal activities recommence for Tank 9 and the adjacent Tank 10 (also containing Calibration Fluid).

Copies of the Uniform Hazardous Waste Manifests corresponding to the shipment and disposal of the contaminated soil removed from the excavations are also enclosed.

If you should have any questions or require additional information regarding this matter, please call either me or David Lu at (714) 391-5274 or (714) 391-5424, respectively.

SUBJECT: Tank Integrity Test Results
General Electric Co., Ontario, CA

Dear Cynthia,

The following report summarizes the results of the tank integrity testing program conducted to date at your facility. These tests were conducted by McKesson Environmental Services (MES) between January 29, 1986 and June 2, 1986. Testing was performed using both the Horner EZY-CHEK and Heath Petro-tite methods of tank integrity testing. The results of the testing program are shown in Table 1. Copies of the data sheets generated during testing are attached.

Of the nine tanks tested to date, tanks 3, 4, 5, 9, 10, and 11 were found to be product tight with measured net volume changes ("leak rates") of -.033, -.036, -.041, -.002, -.047 and -.006 gallons/hour respectively. These tests were conducted in such a fashion as to simultaneously test both the tanks and their associated piping. Certificates of compliance will be issued for each of these tanks at the conclusion of the compliance program.

Tanks 6 and 7 - the two 5000g Diesel tanks - are manifolded together and consequently were tested as a single system. The measured net volume change for these two tanks was -.097 gallons/hr. This exceeds the maximum acceptable result (+.05 gallons/hour as established by the National Fire Protection Association) and indicates a leaking system. A low level retest of both of these tanks was performed to test the integrity of the tank shells only. The net volume changes measured during these tests, -.003 and +.004 gallons/hour for tanks 6 and 7 respectively, indicate that each tank shell is product tight and that the leak identified during the initial test is located at or above to top of the tanks - a "piping leak."

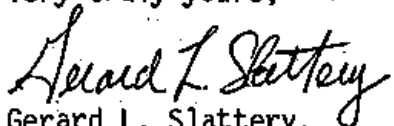

Initial testing of tank 8 indicated a system leak which was too large to measure. (The product level was visually observed to drop in the fillpipe.) Low level retesting of the tank shell yielded a net volume change of +.024 gallons/hour indicating that the tank shell is product tight and that the leak is located at or above the top of the tank.

June 9, 1986

MES is currently preparing a bid for review by General Electric to conduct the necessary piping repairs on the tanks discussed above. If you have any questions concerning this report or any other phase of the program please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Gerard L. Slattery
Program Engineering Geologist

Gentlemen:

Due to the nature of our business, we do not generate waste on a regular basis. Our processes do include eleven tanks (capacity ranging from 1,500 to 2,000 gallons) of which four tanks are acidic, five tanks are caustic sodas, and one is a chlorinated solvent. Of the four acid tanks, one is a combination of nitric and hydrofluoric, one is nitric acid, and the other two are only slightly acidic using phosphoric and sodium bisulfate respectively. Of the five caustic soda tanks, one tank contains potassium permanganate, and the remaining four tanks contain sodium hydroxide. The chlorinated solvent is 1.1.1.-trichloroethane.

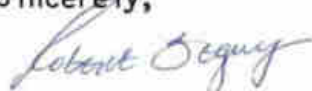

Depending on the work load on the line, we will, at a maximum, pump the sludge off the bottom of the caustic tanks once every 6 months, with ultimate disposal of the material in 18 months. Using your record keeping material will be disposed of using methods 7 and 12, excluding 1.1.1-trichloroethane, which is recycled except when the material is extremely contaminated with oils and a recycler will not accept.

We do have an "extremely hazardous" permit from the DOHS for the disposal of the nitric/hydrofluoric acid. However, the tank is seldomly utilized in the work process.

Other wastes generated include the following:

Waste Generated	Disposal Method
Metal-spray sludge	7, 12
Oil and water	6 or 7, 12
Paint sludge/waste	7, 12
Penetrating oil	7, 12
Baghouse wastes	2
Laboratory chemicals	6 or 7, 12
Hydrochloric acid	6 or 7, 12

Sincerely,

Robert J. Seguy

Dear Ms. Williams:

We were the former leaseholder of the site and removed a 500 gallon waste oil tank when the new operation (Mercury) did not need it in their operation.

Enclosed is the subsurface soil investigation report that was completed on the site. At this point, we believe that all the necessary steps have been taken for you to grant closure to the site. If more action is needed please let me know. I can be contacted as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Pursuant to CTL Environmental Services (CTL) agreement with Laidlaw Environmental Services of California (Laidlaw), a subsurface soil investigation was performed at Mercury Air Group/Raytheon, 2161 East Avion Street, Ontario, California (site). A site vicinity map is presented as Figure 1.

BACKGROUND

In October 1996, Laidlaw removed one 500-gallon waste oil underground storage tank (UST) located in a planter area at the subject property. Following the removal of the UST, one soil sample was collected at a depth of approximately two feet below the excavation bottom (approximately six feet below the planter grade). As noted in the laboratory report presented in Appendix A, the soil sample exhibited a total recoverable petroleum hydrocarbon (TRPH) concentration of 1,270 milligrams per kilogram (mg/kg). In addition, the sample exhibited no purgeable halocarbons or metals exceeding the Total Threshold Limit Concentrations (TTLC) or ten times the Soluble Threshold Limit Concentrations (STLC) established by the State of California.

Based on the TRPH concentration (1,270 mg/kg) detected below the former UST, further assessment of the area was recommended.

OBJECTIVE

The objective of the investigation is to assess the vertical extent of the petroleum hydrocarbon-impacted soil in the former UST area.

INVESTIGATION

The following field activities were conducted on October 1, 1997, in accordance with CTL's Exploratory Borings and Soil Sampling Protocol presented in Appendix B.

CTL drilled one soil boring (B-1) in the center of the former UST excavation using a Geoprobe System equipped with push rods (see Figure 2). Undisturbed soil samples were collected at depths of 10, 15, and 20 feet below ground surface (bgs) using a core sampler lined with brass rings. Note: The Geoprobe System encountered refusal at a depth of approximately 21 feet bgs, at which point the field investigation was terminated. The sampling rings were sealed with plastic caps, labeled, and stored in a chilled ice chest for transport to CTL's Laboratory Division located in Carson, California. An organic vapor analyzer (OVA) was utilized on-site to screen selected soil cuttings/samples for the presence of organic vapors. Additionally, the soils encountered during the investigation were logged at five foot intervals using the Unified Soil Classification System (USCS). The OVA readings and soil classifications are included in the boring log presented in Appendix C. Upon completion, the boring was back-filled with bentonite chips, hydrated, and covered with planter soil.

The soil samples collected from the boring were analyzed for TRPH by EPA Method 418.1. In addition, sample B-1-20' was analyzed for volatile organic compounds (VOCs) by EPA Method 8260. The laboratory report and chain-of-custody documentation are presented in Appendix D.

GEOLOGY AND HYDROLOGY

The sediments encountered in the boring consisted of excavation fill (fine to medium grained sands), fine silty sands, and fine to medium grained sands with gravel to a refusal depth of approximately 21 feet bgs. Groundwater was not encountered during the investigation. According to the City of Ontario Engineering Department, regional groundwater occurs at an average depth of 300 feet bgs.

RESULTS

The following analytical results are expressed in mg/kg:

SAMPLE DESCRIPTION	TRPH EPA METHOD 418.1	VOCs EPA METHOD 8260
*WOT #1 - sample collected below former UST, depth = 6 feet bgs	1,270	ND (by EPA 8010)
B-1-10'	ND	NA
B-1-15'	ND	NA
B-1-20'	35	ND
DETECTION LIMITS	10.0	.005 - .05

* = sample collected by Laidlaw on 10/15/96
ND = Not Detected above laboratory reporting limits
NA = Not analyzed

DISCUSSION

As indicated in the results table, the soil samples collected from boring B-1 exhibited TRPH concentrations ranging from ND to 35 mg/kg. In addition, soil sample B-1-20' exhibited no detectable concentrations of VOCs.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Based on the analytical results, it appears that the elevated petroleum hydrocarbon concentrations are limited to the shallow soil directly below the former UST excavation (depth of approximately 6 to 9 feet bgs). Therefore, CTL recommends that closure of the former UST area be requested from the lead regulatory agency.

ASSUMPTIONS AND LIMITATIONS

The soil sampling and laboratory analytical services were performed for the exclusive use of Laidlaw. In performing our professional services, we have applied present engineering and scientific judgment and used a level of effort consistent with the current standard of practice for similar type studies. CTL has relied in good faith upon representations and information furnished by individuals with respect to operations and existing property conditions, to the extent they have not been contradicted by data obtained from other sources. Accordingly, CTL accepts no responsibility for any deficiencies, omissions, misrepresentations, or fraudulent acts of persons interviewed. In addition, CTL will not accept any liability for loss, injury claim, or damage arising directly or indirectly from any use or reliance on this report. CTL makes no warranty, expressed or implied.

Should you have any questions regarding this report, please contact the undersigned at (310) 530-5006.

Respectfully submitted,

APPENDIX B

EXPLORATORY BORINGS
AND SOIL SAMPLING PROTOCOL

The following procedures are followed when performing exploratory borings utilizing a Geoprobe System or Ramset with push type samplers:

1. 1 to 1.5 inch core samplers are used.
2. All push rods are steam cleaned prior to use and between borings, if necessary.
3. A registered geologist, civil engineer with soils experience, or other appropriately trained personnel under the direct supervision of the aforementioned, observes the drilling and obtains soil samples at 5-foot intervals (unless otherwise specified) and at the terminus of each boring.
4. The Unified Soil Classification System (USCS) may be utilized to classify the soils.
5. The soil samples are obtained using a core sampler, which accommodates two to three sample tubes. Various tubes are utilized to be compatible with the different analyses required:
 - Brass Tubes: for all organics and general analyses, excluding copper and zinc.
 - Stainless Steel Tubes: for all organics and metals analyses excluding chrome and nickel.
6. The tubes are scrubbed with a brush and Alconox or equivalent cleaning agent, then rinsed with tap water. Tubes are given a final rinse with distilled water and delivered to the drilling site in closed buckets or equivalent to preclude recontamination.
7. After the sample tubes are removed from the sampler, the latter is scrubbed in Alconox or equivalent and tap water. The sampler is rinsed with tap water, and distilled water (if required) and reassembled with the required number of clean tubes.
8. Unclean tubes are washed with Alconox or equivalent solutions, rinsed with tap water, etc. as described in number 6.
9. In loose soils, a sand trap is used to prevent soil from falling out of the sampler.
10. The sampler is driven 12 to 18 inches at each sampling. Generally, the lowest tube is retained for analysis. The other tube or tubes are retained as a back-up.
11. The sample is logged in and capped with Teflon liners and tight-fitting plastic caps. The samples are labeled and preserved in a clean ice chest containing Blue Ice or equivalent, to keep the samples at or about 4 degrees Celsius.

12. The soil sample tube label is marked with at least the following minimum information:

Job Number

Boring Number and Depth

Sampling Date and Time

Sampler's Initials

Test to be Performed (if known at the time of sampling).

13. The samples are kept in the ice chest until delivered to a State of California certified testing laboratory, the same day if physically possible. The undelivered samples are stored or archived in secured sample storage at or about 4 degrees Celsius.
14. All samples are accompanied by an EPA approved chain-of-custody form, documenting the time, date, and person-in-charge from sample retrieval to laboratory delivery.
15. The samples that are to be analyzed may be selected through field observations and/or OVA screening.
16. Upon termination, all borings shall be sealed from the bottom of the boring to grade with bentonite grout or bentonite chips. Grout shall be emplaced by the tremie method. Chips shall be hydrated prior to the surface being repaired.

NW & NE SUMPS NEED FIBERGLASS AT COLLAR.

¹ If the testing method does not test the entire depth of the sump, specify how much of the sump was tested. Methods not testing the entire sump should only be used if the monitoring system provides fail safe turbine shutdown.
² With the submersible pump running, place the sensor in product (discriminating sensors should also be placed in water). The time between placing the sensor in product and the turbine shutting down is the response time. This should be done if the secondary containment testing method used does not test the entire volume of the sump.

None of the 55-gallon containers on site were observed to have any dates marked on them to show when they were emptied. Contaminated containers larger than 5 gallons must be marked with the date that the container became empty and must be removed from the site within one (1) year of that date. Each container must be hauled off-site to reclaim its scrap value and the following information must be maintained and available for review for up to three (3) years: The name, street address, mailing address and telephone number of the facility where the empty containers have been shipped. The containers may also be reconditioned or remanufactured and may also be returned to the supplier to be refilled. Immediately display the date when each contaminated container became empty.

Compliance Requirement for 117:

A routine inspection was performed on 10-5-05 and 10-6-05 to determine compliance with applicable hazardous material / hazardous waste laws and regulations (including Tiered permitting - PBR and CESSW). The inspection was conducted by myself (Kris Aifelor) of SBCoFD Haz-Mat, Leslie Heaviside (SBCoFD - Hazmat), and Mark Pear (DISC). Consent to perform the inspection was granted by Bradley Grubbs (EHS Manager) and Brett Boston (EHS consultant). Digital photographs were taken with permission. Personal protective equipment used were steel-toed shoes (optional) and safety glasses.

* This is a preliminary inspection report summarizing the events and violations noted on 10-5-05 and 10-6-06. A full inspection report will be submitted to your facility upon completion. Upon receiving the full inspection report, correct all noted violations and submit a signed certificate of compliance with all required documentation to this Division within 30 days. *

① Revise and submit the onsite hazardous waste treatment notification (unit) page - 22CCR 67450.2(b) & 22CCR 67450.3(c) - The amount of waste treated monthly was 6,530 gallons. Actually monthly treatment volume is approximately 10,000 gallons.

② Submit a written inspection schedule for containers, tanks, equipment related to the treatment system (22CCR 67450.3(c)(8)(B) & 22CCR 67450.3(c)(9)(A) & (D)) An inspection schedule was not available during the inspection. Prepare and submit a written inspection schedule.

SUPPLEMENTAL INSPECTION REPORT

FACILITY NAME: G.E. Engine Services	FACILITY LOCATION: 1923 E. Avion St. Ontario, Ca. 91761

- Inspection Records: Inspection records for Hazardous Waste Storage Area, Satellite Accumulation Areas, and Above Ground Storage tanks are kept on site and up to date
- Training Documentation: Training records are kept on all applicable employees, as well as a training matrix to summarize training received and needed. 3 employees on-site have 40 hour "HAZWOPER" training.

Hazardous Waste Storage Area:

Hazardous Waste Storage Area is maintained in a very orderly manner. The area is bermed, locked, and kept clean. Drums are kept closed and accounted for with a Number Tracking System. Drums are segregated by general type and chemical hazard. Empty drums are properly labeled. Labeling is correct and complete. Accumulation start dates are listed on all drums.

Satellite Accumulation Areas (S.A.A.):

During time of inspection, there were a total of 4 S.A.A. in Hangars 2 and 5. All were well managed, with good housekeeping, and labeling. Drums are kept closed, and are kept in secondary containment. All S.A.A.'s had site-specific spill kits. Accumulated at these areas were oil soaked clay absorbent, oil rags and paper towels, oil/fuel filters, aerosol cans, waste oil, and waste fuel. S.A.A. in Hangar 2 also had accumulation for Molydags and Microballon waste. Accumulation dates were written on all drum labels.

7 Tank Rinse Line (Hangar 1):

See Reports completed by Wayne Williams of this Department in 1993 & 1995; Shows flow chart, chemicals, temperatures, tank materials, etc. of this process. The process has not changed.

Waste Water Treatment Plant (FTU-1):

See Reports completed by Wayne Williams of this Department in 1993 & 1995; Those reports show flow chart, chemicals processed from wastewater, and chemicals and quantities in bulk tanks used in this process. The process has changed in quantity of wastewater flow per day estimated in 1995 Wayne Williams report (3400 gal.); Average flow of wastewater is 6000 gal. with an average of 10,000 gal. treated water flow per day. See also attached handout provided by GE showing brief explanation and flow chart. Treated water flows to Inland Empire Utilities Treatment Plant. Wastewater sludge is recovered at 5-55 gal. drums per year and shipped offsite for disposal. Sludge typically includes Barium, Nickel, and Chromium.

Hazardous Materials Storage Area

Drums are stored on pallets and segregated by chemical type and hazard category. Area is bermed, locked, covered, and kept clean. Drums are kept closed. Area includes 10-55 gal. drums of J-88L permanganate scale conditioner and 24-55 gal. drums of J-84AL sodium hydroxide solution.

NOTICE OF VIOLATION: THE VIOLATIONS NOTED ABOVE MUST BE CORRECTED WITHIN _____ DAYS. FAILURE TO COMPLY MAY RESULT IN LEGAL ACTION. THE CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE SHALL BE SUBMITTED WITHIN THE TIME PERIOD NOTED ABOVE.

Subject: UST Removal and Closure Report -
ATLANTIC AVIATION - ONT
2161 East Avion Street, Ontario, California

Dear Mr. Kissick:

Advanced GeoEnvironmental, Inc. (AGE) has prepared the enclosed report summarizing the removal of seven underground storage tanks (USTs) and subsequent soil sampling and excavation activities performed on 07 and 22 May 2013 at the ATLANTIC AVIATION - ONT site at 2161 East Avion Street, Ontario, California (site).

1.0. SITE LOCATION AND DESCRIPTION

The site is located in an industrial area on the south side of the Ontario International Airport at 2161 Avion Street, Ontario, California (Figure 1 - Location Map). The site is a former fueling facility that contained seven USTs. The following table is a summary of the various USTs:

UST No.	UST Volume (gallons)	UST Contents	UST Construction
T1	25,000	Jet Fuel	Double-walled Fiberglass
T2	25,000	Jet Fuel	Double-walled Fiberglass
T3	15,000	Jet Fuel	Double-walled Fiberglass
T4	10,000	Av-Gas	Double-walled Fiberglass
T5	6,000	Gasoline	Double-walled Fiberglass
T6	2,000	Slop - various fuels	Double-walled Fiberglass
T7	500	Waste water	Steel

A fuel dispenser, related to the UST T5 (gasoline) was located north of the UST. The UST facility is depicted on Figure 2 - Site Plan.

2.0. DEPTH TO GROUND WATER

AGE reviewed the State of California Geotracker database to determine if groundwater has been encountered at any locations under environmental investigation in the vicinity of the site. The property at 2264 East Avion Street, located 0.22 mile southeast of the site, has numerous groundwater monitoring wells. The depth to groundwater on this property has ranged from 232 to 277 feet and flows to the southwest. AGE believes the depth to groundwater and flow direction are similar under the site.

3.0. UST REMOVAL

The USTs were removed by MJK on 07 May 2013. Prior to removal, the USTs had been exposed and were triple-rinsed by Adams Services Inc. On 29 April, 06 May and 07 May 2013 and the rinseate was subsequently transported to a Demenno/Kerdoon for disposal under manifest Nos. 01396378, 010396379 and 004291309 (manifests attached). Prior to removal, dry ice was added to each UST to assist in purging oxygen levels. Following the removals, USTs T1 through T6 were transported under non-hazardous waste manifests to Azusa Land Reclamation while UST T7 was transported to American Metals Recycling (non-hazardous waste manifests and destruction certificates attached).

The UST removals were witnessed by Inspector Heenan of the Ontario Fire Department and Ms. Brenda MacGregor of the San Bernardino County Fire Department - Hazardous Materials Division (SBCFD-HMD).

4.0. SOIL SAMPLE COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS

The sampling program was conducted by Mr. Robert Loeffler, California Professional Geologist No. 6709. Ms. MacGregor of the SBCFD-HMD directed the sampling program.

Within the UST excavation, samples were collected approximately 2 feet below both ends of USTs T1 through T4. One soil sample was collected 2 feet beneath the centers of USTs T5, T6 and T7. The initial sample under T7 was collected at 9 feet, however, based on hydrocarbon odors in the sample, a deeper sample was also collected at 14 feet. One soil sample was collected from a depth of 4 feet beneath the former dispenser. Two samples were also collected from the spoils piles. The sample locations are depicted on Figure 2. The samples collected from the UST excavation and dispenser location were collected from the teeth of the backhoe bucket while the spoils pile samples were collected with a hand auger. Each sample was compacted into a 2" x 3" brass sleeve, each end covered with teflon sheets and capped. The sample sleeves were labeled and then placed in a chilled container.

All samples were transported under chain-of-custody to CalTech Environmental Laboratory (CTEL), a California Department of Public Health-certified laboratory, for analysis. The samples were analyzed for the following. and analyzed for the following constituents:

Sample Location	Sample Ids	Sample Date	Analysis
UST T1 - 25,000 Gal Jet Fuel, North and South End - 16' Depth	T1N-16' T1S-16'	5/7/2013	1. Total Petroleum Hydrocarbons - diesel range (TPH-d) - EPA Method 8015-m 2. Benzene, Toluene, Ethylbenzene, Xylenes and MTBE (BTEX/MTBE) - EPA method 8260B

5.0. FINDINGS

Hydrocarbon odors and stained soil were noted in the dispenser sample as well as the two soil samples collected beneath UST T7.

TPH-g was detected in samples T7C-9', T7C-14' and D-4' at 110 mg/kg, 70 mg/kg and 110 mg/kg, respectively. TPH-d was detected in these same samples at 4,400 mg/kg, 2,900 mg/kg and 4,800 mg/kg, respectively. Toluene, ethylbenzene and xylenes were detected in these same samples at concentrations ranging from 0.040 mg/kg to 1.56 mg/kg. Benzene and MTBE were not detected in these samples.

TPH-g and/or TPH-d and BTEX and MTBE were not detected in any of the samples collected from beneath USTs T1 through T6 or the spoils pile samples.

The analytical results are summarized on Table 1. The analytical report, QA/QC report (CTEL Project No. CT178-1305043) and chain-of-custody form are attached.

Based on the analytical results, the SBCFD-HMD was contacted to determine if the impacted soil in the former dispenser and UST T7 area could be further excavated prior to submitting a closure report. On 13 May 20013, the SBCFD-HMD agreed to supervise the excavation of the impacted soil.

6.0. FURTHER EXCAVATION OF IMPACTED SOIL

On 22 May 2013, MJK Construction Inc. excavated additional soil in the dispenser and UST T7 location under the direction of Mr. Curtis Brundage of the SBCFD-HMD and Mr. Loeffler with AGE. The area under the former dispenser was excavated to a depth of 10.5 feet with lateral dimensions of 11 feet x 7 feet. The area under UST T7 was excavated to a depth of 21 feet with approximate lateral dimensions of 10 feet by 7 feet. The excavations were dug out until stained soil was no longer visible in the sidewalls. All impacted soil was stockpiled on visqueen sheeting and subsequently covered.

Under the direction of Mr. Brundage, soil samples were collected from the bottom of the excavations by Mr. Loeffler (samples EX-D-10.5' and EX-T7-21'). The excavation and sample locations are depicted on Figure 2. Each sample was compacted into a 2" x 3" brass sleeve, each end covered with teflon sheets and capped. The sample sleeves were labeled and then placed in a chilled container and transported to CTCL for analysis. The samples were analyzed for TPH-g, TPH-d and BTEX/MTBE in accordance with EPA methods 8015-m and 8260B.

TPH-g, TPH-d, BTEX and MTBE were not detected in either of the samples.

The analytical results are summarized on Table 1. The analytical report, QA/QC report (CTEL Project No. CT178-1305137) and chain-of-custody form are attached.

On 28 May 2013, 77.11 tons of impacted soil was transported under non-hazardous waste manifests to Soil Safe of California, Inc. in Adelanto, California for recycling. The weighmaster certificates and non-hazardous waste manifests are attached.

7.0. RECOMMENDATIONS

Based on field observations and the analytical results, AGE recommends that the SBCFD-HMD grant closure for this former UST facility based on the following:

- The depth to groundwater beneath the site is anticipated to be between 232 and 277 feet below surface grade.
- Seven USTs, dispenser and piping were removed from the site in May 2013.
- Impacted soil was encountered beneath the former waste water UST and dispenser, however, the soil was subsequently removed successfully. The excavated impacted soil was transported to Soil Safe of California, Inc. for recycling.
- No hydrocarbon impacted soils were encountered beneath former USTs T1 through T6.

8.0. LIMITATIONS

Our professional services were performed using that degree of care and skill ordinarily exercised by environmental consultants practicing in this or similar localities. The findings were based solely upon analytical results provided by an independent laboratory. Evaluations of the hydrogeologic conditions at the site have been made from a limited number of available data points (i.e., soil samples) and subsurface conditions may vary away from these data points. No other warranty, expressed or implied, is made as to the professional interpretations, opinions, and recommendations contained in this report.

This Department has received the closure report, including the sample results from ADVANCED GEO ENVIRONMENTAL, for the UST removal completed on May 7, 2013. LEAK DETECTION PLAN FOR
BEECHCRAFT WEST, INCORPORATED
2161 EAST AVION STREET
ONTARIO, CA 91761

Prepared by:

Eric D. Floyd
Project Geophysicist
H. B. Covey, Inc.

LOCATION OF FACILITY:

2161 EAST AVION ST.
ONTARIO, CA 91761

NAME AND ADDRESS OF TANK OWNER:

BEECHCRAFT WEST, INC.
7240 HAYVENHURST AVE.
VAN NUYS, CA 91406

DESCRIPTION OF TANK FACILITY:

LEAK DETECTION

Present leak detection is by stock inventory and system check. Each morning the fueling system is activated, and product is recirculated through all aboveground piping. At this time, all exposed piping is checked for leakage. This process is recorded on a daily record sheet (APPENDIX I). There is an "in tank" mechanical gauging system installed on tanks 1-5, however it is inoperative at the present time. There is no secondary containment or cathodic protection equipment on the tanks located at this facility.

TANK DESCRIPTIONS

- Tank #1 One 25,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains aviation jet fuel (high grade kerosene). The product line from this tank is of the above ground suction type. Size and material of construction are unknown. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.
- Tank #2 One 25,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains aviation jet fuel (high grade kerosene). The product line from this tank is of the above ground suction type. Size and material of construction are unknown. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.
- Tank #3 One 15,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains aviation gasoline (100 octane low lead). The product line from this tank is of the above ground suction type. Size and material of construction are unknown. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.

Tank #4 One 15,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains aviation gasoline (100 octane low lead). The product line from this tank is of the above ground suction type. Size and material of construction are unknown. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.

Pressure
Tank #5 One 6,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains premium unleaded gasoline. The product line from this tank is of the underground pressure type. Size and material of construction are unknown. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.

Tank #6 One 2,000 gallon Owens-Corning underground storage tank constructed of fiberglass, installed in 1983. This tank contains contaminated aviation jet fuel and aviation gasoline. Spilled product can enter this tank through a gravity drain type system from a containment apron constructed in the fuel transfer area. This waste product is removed by suction truck. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.

Tank #7 One 500 gallon underground storage tank constructed of carbon steel. This tank was installed in 1983 and contains waste oil. Leak detection is by stock inventory. The drain line into this tank is of the gravity drain type. There has been no recorded product loss from this tank and associated piping, nor have any repairs been made to this system.

LOCAL HYDROLOGY:

Depth to groundwater in the vicinity of this location is in excess of 200 feet (City of Ontario Water Department). The ground water gradient is thought to be in a generally southern direction. This water is potable, and is used for drinking and agriculture.

Surface soil conditions grade from sand to sandy loam. These soils are poorly sorted and compacted.

Drainage around the tank area is mostly to the north.

PROPOSED LEAK DETECTION SYSTEM

Tanks 1 - 6.....Alternative #14
Daily inventory by gauge tape
Retrofit with line leak detectors where required
Annual precision tank test

Tank #7.....Alternative #11
Weekly gauging of tank
Annual precision tank test

TANK TESTING SCHEDULE

All tanks to be tested by December 15, 1986
Petro-tite precision test to be used on all tanks

PERSON RESPONSIBLE FOR LEAK DETECTION

Mr. William Speer

LEAK DETECTION PROCEDURE

The level of each tank is checked daily via the in-tank gauging system and/or gauge stick. Dispensing meters are also read daily for each product. These readings are recorded and maintained in a file. These figures are compared every 30 days. The California Underground Storage Tank Regulations (Table 4.1, pg. 4.3b) sets forth the following tolerance levels for tank measurements.

"Inventory reconciliation which exceeds an allowable measurement error plus 0.15 percent of throughput at any time during a 30 day period shall require further investigation." The allowable measurements errors are as follows;

TANK SIZE	ALLOWABLE MEASUREMENT ERROR
Tanks of 4,000 gallons or less.....	25 gallons;
4,000 to 8,000 gallons.....	50 gallons;
8,000 to 12,000 gallons.....	75 gallons;
Tanks greater then 12,000 gallons.....	100 gallons.

REPORTING PROCEDURES

Should a leak be detected, the monitoring equipment will immediately be checked for proper operation and the pump meters for proper calibration. The San Bernardino County Environmental Health Department will be notified of the possible problem concomitantly with the above procedures, and updated as to the status of the leak after the equipment check.

SCHEDULE OF COMPLIANCE

Tank test all tanks.....by Dec. 15, 1986
Inventory control.....by Dec. 15, 1986

Respectfully Submitted,

REPORT: On 2/13/19 at 1040 hrs, I arrived at Federal Express Corp (FID 5800) to conduct a compliance inspection. I met with Senior Technician Rick Soto (909-937-1712) who accompanied me during the inspection. I observed the following:

- All portable auxiliary engines that were >50 bhp were registered with PERP.
- The facility mainly uses aerosol paint for touch-ups and safety coatings. I observed Rustoleum Traffic Marking white paint (100 g/L VOC) and Sierra Performance Enamel in Safety Yellow (0 VOC) which are seldom used, compliant with R1113.
- The facility uses a small sink-type parts washer with ArmaKleen 4in1 solvent (21 g/L), compliant with R1171 and exempt per 219(o)
- On site is a small portable pressure washer (s/n 15117574) with a burner of unknown size that utilizes either kerosene or diesel. Mr. Soto believed the burner was diesel fired. I requested that Mr. Soto confirm the fuel and burner rating so that I could determine if a 222 registration would be required.

I departed the facility at 1115 hrs without taking any enforcement action.

Written by VTanik 2/13/19

 Mr. Soto confirmed that the pressure washer had a diesel-fueled burner that was rated 169,000 BTU/hr. I called Mr. Soto to inform him that the washer would require a registration and mailed a copy of 222-PW along with NC E47393.

REPORT: 9/10/2013, I arrived at this facility to conduct an inspection and met with Rick Soto Sr. Technician 9099371712 who escorted me during my inspection. No 461 equipment on the premises.

I issued NC E23326 to apply for District Permit or CARB registration for diesel turbine air start portable engine asset # 29958 402 HP not operating during inspection which was new. I also issued this NC to maintain run time logs for other 9 PERP registered engines (10 total). This airstart was at 1.0 hrs and not operating.

Advised 4 PERP registered air starts were to expire on 10-31-2013. They are 140720, 62203, 62201 and 63489.

I sent e-mail to Manager jmshenouda@fedex.com re: NC and compliance.

10-17-2013 Performed followup inspection with Rick Soto and discovered air start turbine asset # 29958 is red tagged and n/o until permitted or registered. Facility keeping records of run times on air starts and GPUs. NC E23326 is in compliance. I also performed inspection on arranged inspection of PERP # 136812-2016 and discovered it is at John Wayne Airport in Santa Ana. It is not located at Ontario Airport. I updated PFIS and gave to Theresa for further followup in Santa Ana.

On Friday, 4/6/2012, at 1345 hrs., I arrived at this facility to conduct an inspection. The building is closed and locked up with cobwebbs on the outsides of the doors. During a previous inspection I drove over to the other facility site on the base and I met with Gary Feer, Manager, 951 830-2374, who is known to me from previous inspections. He explained the site was closed several years ago and all the equipment removed to back east.

REPORT: Harold Rank

On Monday, 2/22/2010, I arrived at this facility to conduct an inspection. The building is closed and locked up with cobwebbs on the outsides of the doors. I drove over to the other facility site on the base and I met with Gary Feer, Manager, 951 830-2374, who is known to me from previous inspections. He explained the site was closed several years ago and all the equipment removed to back east.

REPORT: 11-08-2013 Performed insp. with Paul Panagiotidis LA World Airports Supervisor 9095445254. Nobody was available at Ameriflight on the tarmac on east end of Ontario Airport next to Haven. Ameriflight operates two 6 cylinder gas GPUs which are old and probably from the 1970's. These engines were not operating. I believe both of these engines are greater than 50 HP. I left business card at this facility's Ontario mailing address.

Engine # 1

Was at 5525 hrs and not operating. It had plate 554950 on the motor block or plate TE6015BA. No other identifying information was on this engine which was cold.

Engine # 2

Was at 6103.8 hrs and not operating. It had plate s/n 0218 on the motor block or plate F2T6015BA. No other identifying information was on this engine which was cold.

Good morning-

I missed your e-mail last week as I was on vacation. Attached is the purchase order for a new, less than 50 hp GPU, to replace the units in question. We've pushed the manufacturer to move us up on the waiting list as we're an existing customer. We're anticipating receiving this unit by the end of the month. In addition, we've rebuilt a battery cart and will be delivering it to ONT later this week.

Please let me know if I can be of further assistance.

Thanks

-Paul

Subject: Just to advise

Hello, I was able to inspect your engines today, and document hour meter readings on your 2 GPU's. These engines are not in compliance, and the District can pursue Notice of Violation if they are found to be operating without permit or registration. If the hour meters advance, it can be considered proof of operation and a subsequent Notice of Violation can be issued.

Does Ameriflight have a plan to deal with this issue ?

Thanks.

This needs further followup, since nobody is on the premises to deal with this issue.

Written by John Eckert 11-15-2013

01-21-2014 Performed inspection and contacted Jessie Garcia Line Service Tech 8183919874 at the Ontario Airport Office location on Avion drive north of mission. He advised old GPU's have been replaced with 25hp new GPU, and tarmac inspection at this time confirmed that these 2 old ICEs are not operating and have been replaced with small 25hp diesel new GPU. He advised he was in process of removing batteries and disabling old GPU's "today", and would followup with e-mail and pics tommorow of disabled engines. I determined this new GPU to be < 25hp from KVA rating on Gen Set during inspection.

Attached is e-mail from Paul Halter with Ameriflight:

Sorry I forgot to get back to you. We did receive, and are using, our new JetGO GPU that I sent you details on previously. The old units are no longer in use. You can get specifics at www.aerospecialties.com. Below are a few of the highlights that I've cut/pasted for you.

Diesel Generators

AERO JetGo 550Mti-RJ 28V DC Diesel Hybrid Ground Power Unit

"550 continuous amps at 28.5 volts DC

"2300 peak amp start capability

"Kubota 4-cylinder turbo-diesel engine

"EPA Tier 4i and EU Stage IIIA emissions compliant

"Aircraft over and under voltage protection with optional added soft-start capabilities

"Efficient fuel consumption: 0.8-1.5 gallons (3-6 liters) per hour (depending on load and atmospheric conditions)

"Extremely quiet: Less than 63db at 20 feet (at full load)

"Includes 30-foot MS3506 military spec output cable with standard NATO aircraft plug

JetGo Tier 4i low-emission nonroad diesel ground power units are exempt from both California Local Air District permits and the California Airborne Toxic Control Measure for Diesel Particulate Matter. The Kubota engines used are rated at less than 50 Horsepower and are therefore not regulated by California statutes.

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

REPORT: On Tuesday, 5/3/2011, at 0950 hrs., I arrived at this facility to conduct a Title V and Equipment list inspection. Prior to my arrival I had confirmed the site was O/B and had made arrangements with LAWA and GE to meet and walk the site. I met with Tammy Norwood, G. E. Regional Manager, (W- 620 442-3600, C - 620 222-5953) and George Raphael, LAWA Engineer, 909 223-6193 and they escorted me during my inspection. All of the buildings had been cleared of all equipment to the bare walls.

I reviewed the close out reports prepared by CH2Hill environmental and confirmed the soil treatment was legally removed along with all the other equipment. I have inserted her report and confirmed the dates included. The short story is they were completely out by December 28, 2010.

Mr. Rank,

This e-mail is to serve as a follow up to the final air inspection for our GE Aviation site located at 2264 E. Avion St, Ontario, CA. As you are aware, the facility has closed and this inspection was to verify that all equipment and emission sources had been removed. It is our understanding that this was the final process to formally close out our Title V air permit with SCAQMD. This final inspection included the following attendees: Tami Norwood (GE Aviation), George Raphael (LAWA) and Jim Rae (LAWA). In addition to a walk thru of the facility, records were reviewed. These records included: visible emissions log, test cell emissions log, VOC usage logs, soil vapor extraction well closure documentation, and the site's decommissioning report dated March 11, 2011.

The site tested its last engine on 8/31/2010. After this date, the site began to prepare for closure of the facility. The last day for the employees at the facility was 10/28/2010. On 11/1/2010, formal closure and decommissioning began at the site. This effort was coordinated by CH2MHill, a contractor hired by GE to coordinate the closure efforts.

The decommissioning efforts were finalized on 12/28/2010 and GE maintained control of the facility until 3/20/2011 when the lease expired and the property was formally turned back over to the Lessor, LA World Airports.

It has been great working with you. Please don't hesitate to give me a call if you have any questions.

REPORT: Harold Rank

On 6/17/2010, I inspected this facility with Gary Feer, Foreman, 909 605-7603. GE Engine Services conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. The majority of the facility is for aircraft engine maintenance/testing. I reviewed their records and they showed their facility has only done 2 engines since the first of this year, which generated less than 25 % of the permitted/emission limits. They are in compliance with their permit condition limits. The Vapor Extraction equipment is still off and disconnected/capped. The submitted their SAM and ACCreports on time. Mr. Feer explained that the plant was closing their doors by the end of the year for good and all employees will be either transferred, retired, or laid off. O/C

On 8/19/2008, at 0800 hrs., I inspected this facility with Gary Feer, Foreman, 909 605-7603. GE Engine Services conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. The majority of the facility is for aircraft engine maintenance/testing. I reviewed their records and they showed their facility does generally less than 1 engine a month, which is less than 25 % of the emission limits. They are in compliance with their permit condition limits. The Vapor Extraction equipment was off and disconnected/capped. They said DTSC was out last week checking and may let them remove the equipment in the future. I told them to make sure it does not affect their Title V permit with an AQMD Engineer. O/C

REPORT: 9/29/09

I arrived at GE Engine services for a Title V and annual compliance inspection.

GE Engine Services conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. The majority of the facility is for aircraft engine maintenance.

The two Jet Engine Test Facility/Test Cells, Permit F35578 and Permit F34664 are located at 2264 Avion Place. A test cell is a large engine mount with an exhaust stack. Neither Test Cells were in operation.

Records are maintained of fuel usage and this is used to calculate pollutant emissions based on engine-specific emission factors. Records show compliance with daily and 30-day average emissions. Soil units were not in operation at the time of my inspection and according to the facility have not been used in years.

Units were behind a locked gate and may be removed pending receipt of appropriate permits (see previous inspectors IR).

All wipe cleaning of engines is done with acetone. No plating or painting is done on site.

All Title V annual and semi-annual compliance certifications have been submitted.

The facility is in compliance with District Rules and Regulations.

REPORT: Harold Rank

On 8/19/2008, at 0800 hrs., I inspected this facility with Gary Feer, Foreman, 909 605-7603. GE Engine Services conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. The majority of the facility is for aircraft engine maintenance/testing. I reviewed their records and they showed their facility does generally less than 1 engine a month, which is less than 25 % of the emission limits. They are in compliance with their permit condition limits. The Vapor Extraction equipment was off and disconnected/capped. They said DTSC was out last week checking and may let them remove the equipment in the future. I told them to make sure it does not affect their Title V permit with an AQMD Engineer. O/C

I reviewed their records and they showed their facility does less than 1 engine a month, which is less than 25 % of the emission limits. REPORT: On May 24, 2002 with Supervising Inspector Rich Watson, I arrived for an annual Title V inspection. The facility's Title V permit became official in October 2001. We met with Theresa Du Bois, EHS Specialist, and a temporary EHS Specialist named Stacy, whose last name I didn't acquire. The facility conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. A majority of the property is for engine maintenance. The 2 test cells and the soil vapor units are at 2264 Avion Place. A test cell is just an engine mount with an exhaust stack. Test cell #1 has not been operated for many months and #2 had been operated the day before the inspection. Records are maintained of fuel usage and this is used to calculate pollutant emissions based on engine-specific emission factors. Records show compliance with daily and 30-day average emissions. Soil unit "A" was in operation with an air flow rate of 141 cfm, in compliance with permit limit. Records are maintained of ppm concentrations based on readings from a PID. The soil units are only operated as needed. They currently have a consultant on-site all day to monitor the soil equipment.

All wipe cleaning of engines is done with acetone. There is no painting or plating. Rule 219 equipment include glove box abrasive blast cabinets and <50 HP emergency generators.

The company submitted the Title V annual and semi-annual compliance certifications on the same form with both check boxes marked. I informed Mr. Du Bois that they need to submit separate forms with only one box checked for each report. No notices were issued.

Inspector Comment

On June 13, 2003 I received complaint #159939 alleging that workers were exposed to asbestos containing materials. I arrived at 2132 E. Avion Street, Ontario and met with the complainant.

The area in question is the Terminal One west end basement. The complainant stated that some of [REDACTED] workers on the 12th of June were told to enter an area that was known to have asbestos containing materials and put down plastic covering on the floor. When I arrived at the terminal area, I observed a locked door with a sign on it stating that asbestos was present. Upon entering the area I observed that the area itself is a boiler room with three additional rooms that held storage material. The door to the other room also had a sign on it stating that asbestos was present. The first room had floor tile that had been disturbed in a few places and the floor was covered in plastic. The second room has metal cabinet shelving and books. The floor covering for the most part was intact. The third room was the size of a small closet with broken floor covering material at the entrance of the room.

I met with Ralph Morones, Director of Maintenance Ontario International Airport. I explained to him that I was there because of a complaint filed alleging that workers were working in an environment that exposed them to asbestos. Mr. Morones stated a test was done on May 29, 2002, by the Headquarters Risk Management Group. He then showed me a copy of a Bulk sample Analysis Summary sheet from Hygeia laboratories Inc. The summary sheet was vague and did not contain enough information and there was no chain of custody nor were the samples taken by a CAC.

I issued a Notice to Comply#86692 to Ralph Morones. The notice to comply stated the prior to continuing the renovation conduct an asbestos survey by a CAC (include air sampling of the basement located at Ontario Terminal West One west end. Fax the survey results to D. Celestine 909 396-3342.

If the survey verified the presence of asbestos stabilize and secure the affected area. Submit a procedure 5 plan prior to any clean up. Then submit the following records: name of staff that placed hazard placard on the doors of the basement and a list of the staff who have entered the facility and training certificates since the hazard placards were placed on the doors.

On June 25, 2003 I reviewed the paperwork submitted by Francisco Esquivel, IH. A CAC was hired and conducted bulk sampling and air sampling as per the NTC. Based upon the reported submitted by the CAC the facility is in compliance. No further compliance action is necessary.

CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT (CEQA) APPLICABILITY FORM 400 - CEQA

The SCAQMD is required by state law, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), to review discretionary permit project applications for potential air quality and other environmental impacts. This form is a screening tool to assist the SCAQMD in clarifying whether or not the project¹ has the potential to generate significant adverse environmental impacts that might require preparation of a CEQA document [CEQA Guidelines §15060(a)].² Refer to the attached instructions for guidance in completing this form.³ For each Form 400-A application, also complete and submit one Form 400-CEQA. If submitting multiple Form 400-A applications for the same project at the same time, only one 400-CEQA form is necessary for the entire project. If you need assistance completing this form, contact Permit Services at (909) 396-3385 (or 2668).

C.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	A functionally identical permit unit replacement with no increase in rating or emissions?
D.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	A change of daily VOC permit limit to a monthly VOC permit limit?
E.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Equipment damaged as a result of a disaster during state of emergency?
F.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	A Title V (i.e., Regulation XXX) permit renewal (without equipment modifications)?
G.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	A Title V administrative permit revision?
H.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The conversion of an existing permit into an Initial Title V permit?

For example, a project might include installation of a new, or modification of an existing internal combustion engine, dry-cleaning facility, boiler, gas turbine, spray coating booth, solvent cleaning tank, etc.

	Yes	No
5.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Would this project result in noticeable off-site odors from activities that may not be subject to SCAQMD permit requirements? For example, compost materials or other types of greenwaste (i.e., lawn clippings, tree trimmings, etc.) have the potential to generate odor complaints subject to Rule 402 - Nuisance.

The following examples identify some, but not all, types of projects that may result in a "yes" answer to this question: 1) projects that generate steam; 2) projects that use water as part of the air pollution control equipment; 3) projects that require water as part of the production process; 4) projects that require new or expansion of existing sewage treatment facilities; 5) projects where water demand exceeds the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project; and 6) projects that require new or expansion of existing water supply facilities.
9.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Will the project require construction of new water conveyance infrastructure? Examples of such projects are when water demands exceed the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, or require new or modified sewage treatment facilities such that the project requires new water lines, sewage lines, sewage hook-ups, etc.
Section IV - Transportation/Circulation
10.			Will the project result in (Check all that apply):
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	a. the need for more than 350 new employees?
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. an increase in heavy-duty transport truck traffic to and/or from the facility by more than 350 truck round-trips per day?
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	c. increase customer traffic by more than 700 visits per day?
Section V - Noise

Section VI - Public Services
12.			Will the project create a permanent need for new or additional public services in any of the following areas (Check all that apply):
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	a. Solid waste disposal? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of wastes generated by the project is less than five tons per day.
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	b. Hazardous waste disposal? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of hazardous wastes generated by the project is less than 42 cubic yards per day (or equivalent in pounds).
REMINDER: For each "Yes" checked in the sections above, attach all pertinent information including but not limited to estimated quantities, volumes, weights, etc.

The SCAQMD is required by state law, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), to review discretionary permit project applications for potential air quality and other environmental impacts. This form is a screening tool to assist the SCAQMD in clarifying whether or not the project has the potential to generate significant adverse environmental impacts that might require preparation of a CEQA document (CEQA Guidelines §15064(e)). Refer to the attached instructions for guidance in completing this form. For each Form 400-A application, also complete and submit one Form 400-CEQA. If submitting multiple Form 400-A applications for the same project at the same time, only one 400-CEQA form is necessary for the entire project. If you need assistance completing this form, contact Lori Inga at (909) 396-3109.

5.			Would this project result in noticeable off-site odors from activities that may not be subject to SCAQMD permit requirements? For example, compost materials or other types of greenwaste (i.e., lawn clippings, tree trimmings, etc.) have the potential to generate odor complaints subject to Rule 402 - Nuisance.
6.			Does this project cause an increase of emissions from marine vessels, trains and/or airplanes?
7.			Will the proposed project increase the QUANTITY of hazardous materials stored aboveground onsite or transported by mobile vehicle to or from the site by greater than or equal to the amounts associated with each compound on the attached Table 1? ⁴

8.			Will the project increase demand for water at the facility by more than 5,000,000 gallons per day? The following examples identify some, but not all, types of projects that may result in a "yes" answer to this question: 1) projects that generate steam; 2) projects that use water as part of the air pollution control equipment; 3) projects that require water as part of the production process; 4) projects that require new or expansion of existing sewage treatment facilities; 5) projects where water demand exceeds the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project; and 6) projects that require new or expansion of existing water supply facilities.
9.			Will the project require construction of new water conveyance infrastructure? Examples of such projects are when water demands exceed the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, or require new or modified sewage treatment facilities such that the project requires new water lines, sewage lines, sewage hook-ups, etc.
Section IV - Transportation/Circulation
10.			Will the project result in (Check all that apply): a. the need for more than 350 new employees? b. an increase in heavy-duty transport truck traffic to and/or from the facility by more than 350 truck round-trips per day? c. increase customer traffic by more than 700 visits per day?
Section V - Noise
11.			Will the project include equipment that will generate noise GREATER THAN 90 decibels (dB) at the property line?
Section VI - Public Services
12.			Will the project create a permanent need for new or additional public services in any of the following areas (Check all that apply): a. Solid waste disposal? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of wastes generated by the project is less than five tons per day. b. Hazardous waste disposal? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of hazardous wastes generated by the project is less than 42 cubic yards per day (or equivalent in pounds).

CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT (CEQA) APPLICABILITY FORM 400 - CEQA

Application/Tracking #
Facility Name: GE Engine Services / WCO
Facility ID #: 061160
-- RETAIN FORM IN PERMIT FILE --

The average time to complete the CEQA Applicability Form is no longer than 15 minutes if all necessary information is available. If you need assistance filling out this form, you can call Lori Inga (909) 396-3109

All permit applications must be reviewed to determine California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) applicability. See the SCAQMD's "Permit Application Toolkit" for guidance in completing this form. Submit only one 400-CEQA form for each 400-A application. If submitting multiple applications for the same project, only one 400-CEQA form is necessary. A "project" means the whole of an action which has a potential for resulting in physical change to the environment, including construction activities, clearing or grading of land, improvements to existing structures, and activities or equipment involving the issuance of a permit. For example, a project might include installation of a new, or modification of an existing internal combustion engine, dry-cleaning facility, boiler, gas turbine, spray coating booth, solvent cleaning tank, etc.

Review of Impacts Which May Trigger CEQA

The SCAQMD is required by state law to review discretionary permit projects for potential non-air quality impacts, as well as air quality impacts. Responses to the following questions must be provided to allow the SCAQMD to review the permit application project to identify whether or not the project has the potential to generate significant adverse environmental impacts that might require preparation of a CEQA document [CEQA Guidelines 15060(a)]. To avoid delays in processing this form, please provide additional information explaining any "Yes" responses on a separate sheet and attach to this form. Check "Yes" or "No" as applicable.

	Yes	No
1.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HAS THIS PROJECT GENERATED ANY KNOWN PUBLIC CONTROVERSY REGARDING POTENTIAL ADVERSE IMPACTS THAT MAY BE GENERATED BY THE PROJECT (e.g., concerns raised by local groups at public meetings, adverse media attention such as negative articles in newspapers or other periodical publications, local news programs, environmental justice issues, etc.)?
2.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	IS THIS PROJECT PART OF A LARGER PROJECT?

Section I – Air Quality

3.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WILL THERE BE ANY DEMOLITION, EXCAVATING, AND/OR GRADING CONSTRUCTION ACTIVITIES THAT ENCOMPASS AN AREA EXCEEDING 20,000 SQUARE FEET?
4.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	DOES THIS PROJECT INCLUDE THE OPEN OUTDOOR STORAGE OF DRY BULK SOLID MATERIALS THAT COULD GENERATE DUST? (If "Yes," please submit a plot plan along with the application package.)
5.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WOULD THE PROJECT RESULT IN NOTICEABLE OFF-SITE ODORS (i.e., has the potential to generate Rule 402 nuisance complaints) FROM ACTIVITIES THAT ARE NOT SUBJECT TO SCAQMD PERMITS (e.g., compost materials or other types of greenwaste such as lawn clippings, tree trimmings, etc.)?
6.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WILL THE PROPOSED PROJECT INCREASE THE QUANTITY OF HAZARDOUS MATERIALS (see attached list) STORED ABOVEGROUND ONSITE OR TRANSPORTED BY MOBILE VEHICLE TO OR FROM THE SITE BY GREATER THAN OR EQUAL TO THE AMOUNTS ASSOCIATED WITH EACH COMPOUND ON THE ATTACHED LIST?

Section II – Water Resources

7.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WILL THE PROJECT INCREASE DEMAND FOR WATER AT THE FACILITY BY MORE THAN 5,000,000 GALLONS PER DAY? (The following examples identify some, but not all, projects that may result in a "yes" answer to this question: projects that generate steam, projects that use water as part of the air pollution control equipment, projects that require water as part of the production process, projects that require new or expansion of existing sewage treatment facilities, projects where water demand exceeds the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, projects that require new or expansion of existing water supply facilities, etc.)
8.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WILL THE PROJECT REQUIRE CONSTRUCTION OF NEW WATER CONVEYANCE INFRASTRUCTURE? (Examples of such projects are when water demands exceed the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, or require new or modified sewage treatment facilities, and thus the project requires new water lines, sewage lines, sewage hook-ups, etc.)

Section III – Transportation/Circulation

	Yes	No
9.	WILL THE PROJECT RESULT IN:
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	THE NEED FOR MORE 350 NEW EMPLOYEES?, or
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	INCREASE HEAVY-DUTY TRANSPORT TRUCK TRAFFIC TO AND/OR FROM THE FACILITY BY MORE THAN 350 TRUCK ROUND-TRIPS PER DAY?, or
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	INCREASE CUSTOMER TRAFFIC BY MORE THAN 700 VISITS PER DAY?

Section IV – Noise

10.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	WILL THE PROJECT INCLUDE EQUIPMENT WITH A NOISE SPECIFICATION GREATER THAN 90 DECIBELS?
-----	--------------------------	-------------------------------------	--

Section V – Public Services

11.	WILL THE PROJECT CREATE A PERMANENT NEED FOR NEW OR ADDITIONAL PUBLIC SERVICES IN ANY OF THE FOLLOWING AREAS:
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of wastes generated by the project is less than five tons per day
	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	HAZARDOUS WASTE DISPOSAL? Check "No" if the projected potential amount of hazardous wastes generated by the project is less than 42 cubic yards per day (or equivalent in pounds)

AS A REMINDER, IF ANY ITEM IS MARKED "YES" IN ANY OF THE SECTIONS, PLEASE ATTACH PERTINENT INFORMATION REGARDING THAT ENVIRONMENTAL TOPIC INCLUDING ESTIMATED QUANTITIES, VOLUMES, WEIGHTS, ETC.

I HEREBY CERTIFY THAT ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN AND INFORMATION SUBMITTED WITH THIS APPLICATION IS TRUE AND CORRECT to the best of my knowledge. I understand that this form is a streamlined screening tool and that the SCAQMD reserves the right to consider other pertinent information in determining CEQA applicability.

	Yes	No
5.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Would this project result in noticeable off-site odors from activities that may not be subject to SCAQMD permit requirements? For example, compost materials or other types of greenwaste (i.e., lawn clippings, tree trimmings, etc.) have the potential to generate odor complaints subject to Rule 402 - Nuisance.
6.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Does this project cause an increase of emissions from marine vessels, trains and/or airplanes?
7.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Will the proposed project increase the QUANTITY of hazardous materials stored aboveground onsite or transported by mobile vehicle to or from the site by greater than or equal to the amounts associated with each compound on the attached Table 1?⁴
Section III - Water Resources
8.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Will the project increase demand for water at the facility by more than 5,000,000 gallons per day? The following examples identify some, but not all, types of projects that may result in a "yes" answer to this question: 1) projects that generate steam; 2) projects that use water as part of the air pollution control equipment; 3) projects that require water as part of the production process; 4) projects that require new or expansion of existing sewage treatment facilities; 5) projects where water demand exceeds the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project; and 6) projects that require new or expansion of existing water supply facilities.
9.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	Will the project require construction of new water conveyance infrastructure? Examples of such projects are when water demands exceed the capacity of the local water purveyor to supply sufficient water for the project, or require new or modified sewage treatment facilities such that the project requires new water lines, sewage lines, sewage hook-ups, etc.

The SCAQMD is required by state law, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), to review discretionary permit project applications for potential air quality and other environmental impacts. This form is a screening tool to assist the SCAQMD in clarifying whether or not the project has the potential to generate significant adverse environmental impacts that might require preparation of a CEQA document [CEQA Guidelines §15060(a)]. Refer to the attached instructions for guidance in completing this form. For each Form 400-A application, also complete and submit one Form 400-CEQA. If submitting multiple Form 400-A applications for the same project at the same time, only one 400-CEQA form is necessary for the entire project. If you need assistance completing this form, contact Lon Inga at (909) 396-3109.

Report: On May 24, 2002 with Supervising Inspector Rich Watson, I arrived for an annual Title V inspection. The facility's Title V permit became official in October 2001. We met with Theresa Du Bois, EHS Specialist, and a temporary EHS Specialist named Stacy, whose last name I didn't acquire. The facility conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. A majority of the property is for engine maintenance. The 2 test cells and the soil vapor units are at 2264 Avion Place. A test cell is just an engine mount with an exhaust stack. Test cell #1 has not been operated for many months and #2 had been operated the day before the inspection. Records are maintained of fuel usage and this is used to calculate pollutant emissions based on engine-specific emission factors. Records show compliance with daily and 30-day average emissions. Soil unit "A" was in operation with an air flow rate of 141 cfm, in compliance with permit limit. Records are maintained of ppm concentrations based on readings from a PID. The soil units are only operated as needed. They currently have a consultant on-site all day to monitor the soil equipment.

All wipe cleaning of engines is done with acetone. There is no painting or plating. Rule 219 equipment include glove box abrasive blast cabinets and <50 HP emergency generators.

The company submitted the Title V annual and semi-annual compliance certifications on the same form with both check boxes marked. I informed Mr. Du Bois that they need to submit separate forms with only one box checked for each report. No notices were issued.

Report On June 16, 2005 I met with Bradley Grubbs, EHS Site Focal Point, for GE Engine services. The facility was in operation during the inspection. The soil vapor extraction equipment is located at 2264 Avion Place. The inspection revealed that there were no changes made to the equipment on site. The equipment was operating according to permit conditions. Geosyntec is still the consultant who operates and maintains the equipment and conducts the monitoring. The records of operation reveal that the equipment is operating according to permit conditions.

Report: On May 13, 2004, I arrived at 1923 Avion Street, and met with Rob Meyers, EHS Manager for GE Engine Services. I informed Mr. Meyers of the compliance inspection of the VOC vapor extraction equipment. The facility is aircraft engine repair shop. The facility was in operation during the inspection.

Permitted VOC extraction unit F36249 was in operation and in compliance with permit limit. The other three units are permanently in place in various locations around the test cell facility. Based upon the plume and migration pattern if necessary the other units be placed in operation. The average flow rate is 122 scfm which is in compliance with permit conditions. Operation and maintenance is done on a weekly basis as well as there is a field service check by the Geosyntec the consultant for this equipment. Records are readily available for inspection.

The facility is in compliance with all Soil Treat Vapor extraction equipment.

Subject: Proposed Wastewater Treatment System

Dear David:

We have reviewed your drawings on the waste water system and have determined that the system as designed should not cause the issuance of any air contaminants. Mr. Randall Shaw of Engineering Science, the project manager for this system is also of the opinion that the treatment process for removing the nickel and lead from the waste stream will not cause any air pollution.

The sulphuric acid day tank is exempt from permit requirement as per District's Rule 219(m)(1)(A). Therefore the proposed system should not require any air quality permits.

If you have any further question regarding this matter please call Mohan Balagopalan at (714)872-6066.

I faxed a sample R 109 form to GE and Hani Zarifa agreed to use it. The only allowance that we gave is to waive the daily requirement. GE can just log the date that the solvent is replenished. The facility showed in its records that the solvent is completely drained in approximately 30-45 days and new solvent is refilled. The waste solvent is sent to a solvent recycler.

I left a message in Hani's voice mail that the letter he sent for your signature was not applicable since the alternative record keeping as proposed was not acceptable. A new form has to be sent to AQMD for approval.

Subject: VOC Recordkeeping

Per our telephone conversation yesterday, this letter is to confirm your agreement with our proposed alternative to daily recordkeeping for our stoddard solvent tanks. As we discussed, we conducted a study to verify that no stoddard solvent is emitted as a VOC. For a two month period, the levels of stoddard solvent in each flow tank were recorded. It was shown that no recordable amount was lost due to evaporation. To further substantiate this finding, a comparison of the quantities of stoddard solvent hauled off the facility to that which was received during the entire year of 1995 was conducted. It was shown that the numbers were the same.

Therefore, per rule 109(c)(1)(D), an alternate method to daily recordkeeping is proposed. This method would consist of a yearly reconciliation of the quantity of stoddard solvent issued to the area to that which is collected for disposal.

As you indicated yesterday, you found this alternative to be adequate. Please confirm this by signing and returning this letter via fax at (909) 391-5319.

Your attention to this matter is greatly appreciated. If you have any questions, please call me at (909) 391-5274.

Mohan,

I informed Hani that he has to include the information that R109(c)(1) requires. The alternative that I suggested to him is to only record on the day that new solvent is replenished since they empty the degreaser every month or so waste a drum and back up to a recorder. I advised that the daily recording with only date marks are unnecessary. Carmalita 1/3/96

VOC Recordkeeping

The Stoddard Solvent / Flow Tank operation is used to clean and inspect metal jet engine parts that include bearings and other engine parts. The Tank dimensions are 41"L x 21"W x 20"H. The tank is exempt per rule SCAQMD Rule 219(l)(10) since its surface area is less than 10.8 square feet, and an internal volume of less than 92.5 gallons, and having an organic solvent loss of 3 gallons per day or less. Another exemption for permitting is the solvent having an initial boiling point of 150 C or 302 F or greater or using material with a VOC content of 2 percent (20g/l) or less by volume. However, per SCAQMD Rule 219(o), recordkeeping is required per Rule 109 to verify and maintain any exemption. SCAQMD Rule 1122(g) for remote reservoir cold cleaners also regulates this process requiring no leaks, closed lid when not in use, and no atomizing of the solvent. The Stoddard Solvent (Calibrating Fluid Type II) specifications are as follows:

Attention: Mohan Balagopalan

This letter is in follow-up to the air inspection conducted by Ms. Carmelita Benitez on September 22, 1995 and the follow-up request for information dated September 29, 1995. Attached, you will find Figure 1 indicating the current layout of the cleaning line. The figure indicates all tank sizes, contents, and whether they are vented to the air scrubbers. Permit No. D57864, attached, was issued for hot and cold nickel stripping tanks containing nitric acid, which we no longer use. Since we have removed the hot nitric acid tank, which led to the previously issued permit, we request that you review the current layout to determine the necessity of a permit. The only nitric acid used on the cleaning line, indicated in figure 1, has a current permit No. D48559, attached, by which we will continue to operate. This small nitric acid tank has been relocated, but is still vented, to a safer area, where if any spills occur, they will be contained.

In Ms. Benitez's letter, she also indicated that we need to monitor usage of VOC containing penetrants in our penetrant inspection area. VOC records were reviewed during the inspection, as well as follow-up telephone conversations were held indicating that we have been keeping records of the VOC containing penetrants from the point of issue of the products, per Rule 109.

If you have any questions, please call me at (909) 391-5274.

Sincerely,

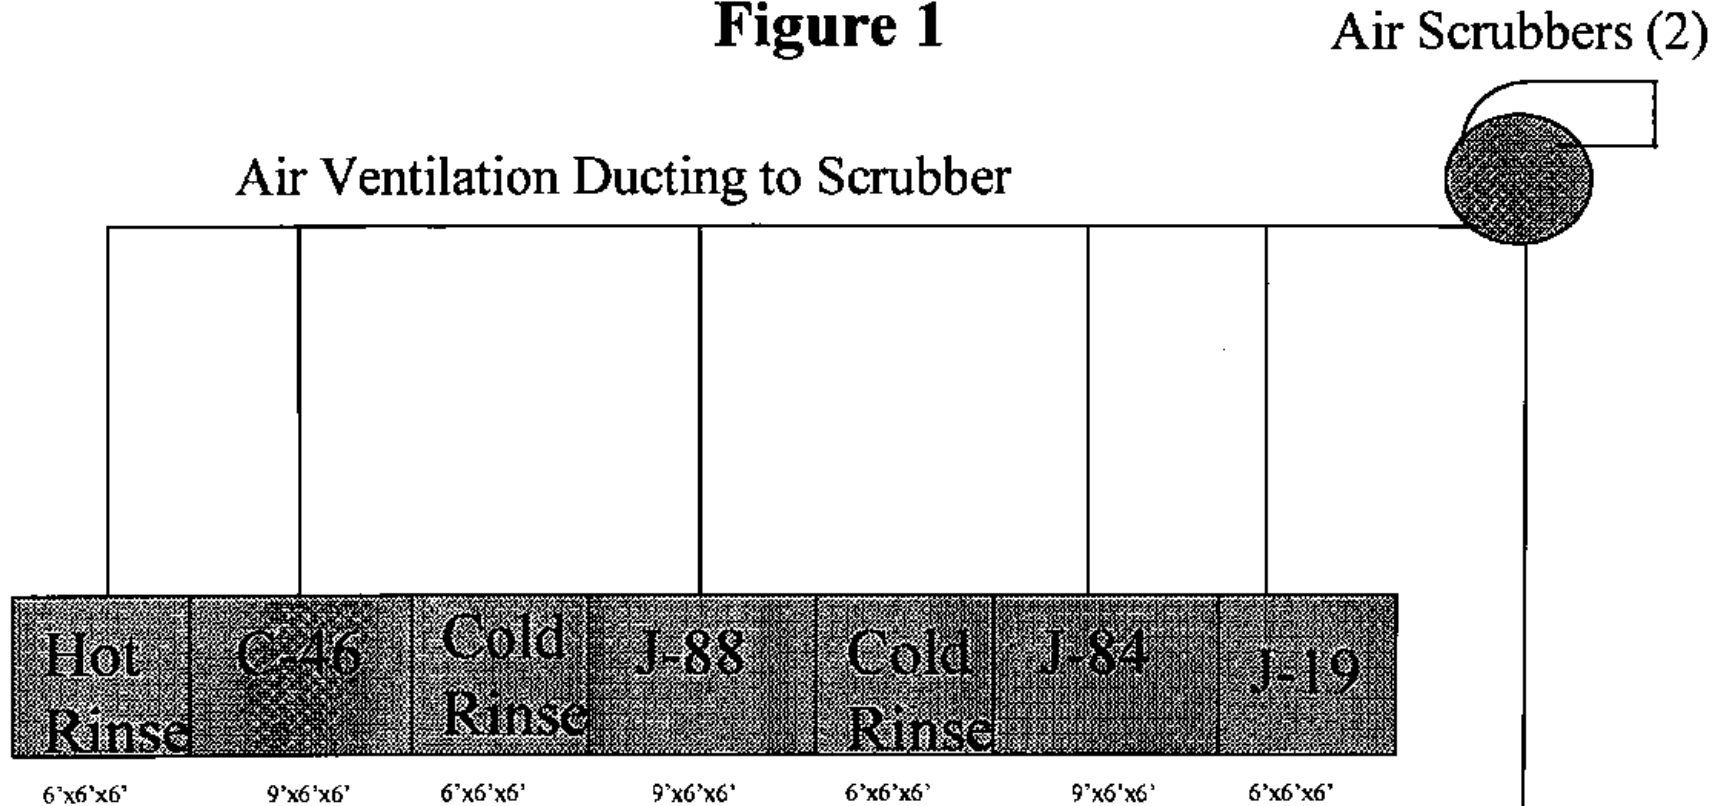

Hani Zarifa
Senior Environmental Engineer

Report: September 30, 2005:

I arrived at GE Engine services for a Title V and annual compliance inspection. I met with Environmental Health & Safety Generalist Brett C. Boston and EHS Site Focal Point Bradley Grubbs. I was accompanied by both Mr. Boston and Mr. Grubbs during the facility inspection.

GE Engine Services conducts aircraft engine overhauls and testing. The majority of the facility is for aircraft engine maintenance. The two Jet Engine Test Facility/Test Cells, Permit F35578 and Permit F34664 are located at 2264 Avion Place. A test cell is a large engine mount with an exhaust stack. Test Cell #1 is not in operation at this time. Test Cell #1 has a stack height of 45 feet 7 inches. Test Cell #2 has a stack height of 58 feet and 2 inches (measured on previous inspection). Records are maintained of fuel usage and this is used to calculate pollutant emissions based on engine-specific emission factors. Records show compliance with daily and 30-day average emissions. Soil units were not in operation at the time of my inspection and are only operated on an as needed basis. Records are maintained of ppm concentrations based on readings from a PID.

All wipe cleaning of engines is done with acetone. No plating or painting is done on site. Rule 219 equipment includes <50 HP emergency generators.

All Title V annual and semi-annual compliance certifications have been submitted.

The facility is in compliance with District Rules and Regulations.
